

Give Ear, O LORD, to All My Thoughts

Psalm 5

HERR, HÖR, WAS ICH WILL BITTEN DICH (8 7. 8 7. 8 7. 4 6 7)
Heinrich Schütz, 1661

Douglas Wilson, 2000

1. Give ear, O LORD, to all my thoughts And words,
2. For You are not a God who winks At e -
3. But as for me, I come to You, And in
4. Their mouths are foul, their in - ward parts Are noth -
5. But let those men who trust in You, Re - joice now hear my cry - ing. Please hear my voice, my vil in Your dwell - ing; And You can take no

Your house You found me, And all Your mer - cies ing but cor - rup - tion. Their throats are o - pen and sing for - ev - er Be - cause You are their

King, my sure God, For un - to Thee I of - fer plea - sure in The sins - of e - vil - do - ing.
crowd me in; I come in fear to trem - ble.
tombs and graves; They flat - ter with their speak - ing.
Shield and Wall, Their God and High De - fend - er.

My prayers at dawn, O LORD, You hear; You hear
You hate those men who love You sin; Those men
Lead me, O LORD, in right - eous - ness; My en - De - stroy them, God, and bring them down; To end
No dan - ger in the world they can yet From You when night is dy - ing. Hear my pray - ing And know that who lies are tell - ing; You de - stroy them. The LORD ab - e - mies sur - round me. In Your pre - sence Make straight Your their vile se - duc - tions. Hear my pray - ing, For they re - Your loved ones sev - er. Bless the right - eous; We joy in

I look up To Thee; my heart I prof - fer.
 hors their blood - y and de - ceit - ful choos - ing.
paths as we with - in Your house as - sem - ble.
 sist Your law. Re - bel - lion they are seek - ing.
 You a - lone and to Your love sur - ren - der.