1. How long, O LORD, wilt Thou for - get?
 2. Look, LORD my God, and an - swer me;
 3. Thy stead - fast love has been my stay;

Far from Thy face I wait and fret.
 Grant that my shall eyes praise Thee light may see,
 My heart shall Thy night and day

How long yet must I bear my sor - row?
 Lest, when the light of life shall fail me,
 And shall re - joice in Thy sal - va - tion,

My heart longs for Thy mer - cy's mor - row.
 When foes with joy and pride as sail me,
 And I will praise with ju - bi - la - tion

Why am I still with foes be - set?
 My fall de - light in my en - e - my.
 Thy boun - ty, LORD Most High, for aye!
