William H. Callcott, 1867;

the last two lines from Mendelssohn, 1846

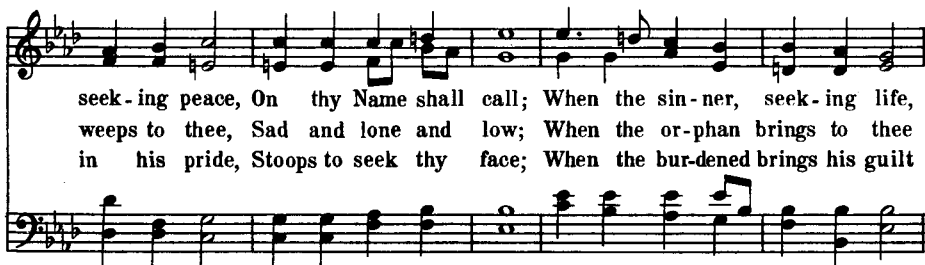

Horatius Bonar, 1866

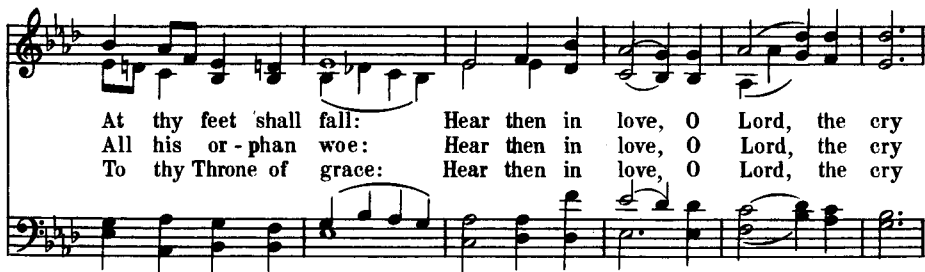

1. When the wea - ry, seek - ing rest, To thy good - ness flee;
2. When the strang - er asks a home, All his toils to end;
3. When the world - ling, sick at heart, Lifts his soul a - bove;

When the heav - y - la - den cast All their load on thee; When the troub - led,
When the hun - gry crav - eth food, And the poor a friend; When the wid - ow
When the prod - i - gal looks back To his Fa - ther's love; When the proud man, seek - ing peace, On thy Name shall call; When the sin - ner, seek - ing life, weeps to thee, Sad and lone and low; When the or - phan brings to thee in his pride, Stoops to seek thy face; When the bur - dened brings his guilt

At thy feet shall fall: Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
All his or - phan woe: Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
To thy Throne of grace: Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry

In heav'n, thy dwell - ing - place on high. A - MEN.
