

Happy is that people, whose God is the Lord. Psalm 144:15

From PSALM 144:12-15
The Psalter, 1912

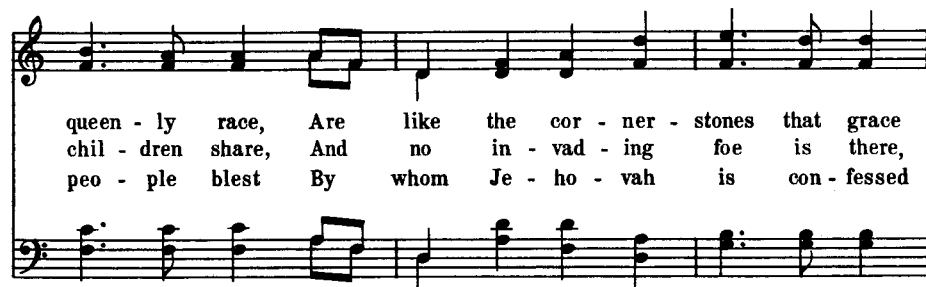

SHORTLE S. S. 6. D. with repeat
Charles G. Goodrich, b. 1869

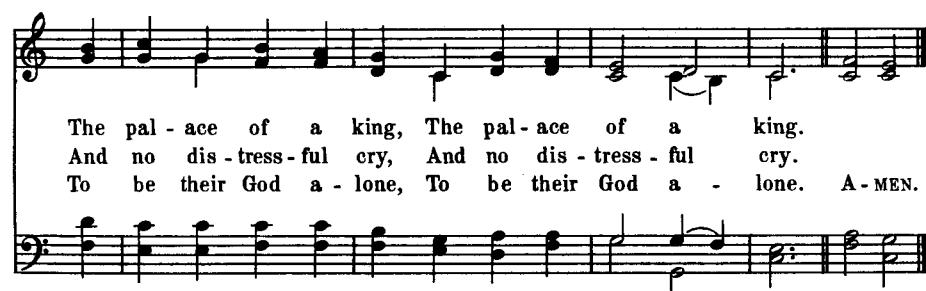

1. O peo - ple blest, whose sons in youth, In stur - dy strength and
2. O peo - ple blest, when flock and field Their rich, a - bun - dant
3. O hap - py peo - ple, fa - vored land, To whom the Lord with no - ble truth, Like plants in vig - or spring; Whose daugh - ters fair, a in - crease yield, And bless - ings mul - ti - ply; When plen - ty all thy lib - eral hand Has thus his good - ness shown; Yea, sure - ly is that queen - ly race, Are like the cor - ner - stones that grace chil - dren share, And no in - vad - ing foe is there, peo - ple blest By whom Je - ho - vah is con - fessed

The pal - ace of a king, The pal - ace of a king.
And no dis - tress - ful cry, And no dis - tress - ful cry.
To be their God a - lone, To be their God a - lone. A - MEN.

St. 1, line 1;

St. 2, lines 1 and 4, alt.